

I would like to applaude the State of Wisconsin for allowing consumers the choice when it comes to unwanted phone calls. I as a consumer will make the phone call or go to buy something if I want to. I also enjoy being able to eat supper without being interrupted by these otherwise annoyances. It upsets me that you are wanting them to "loosen" the strings.